

[psalm]

grackle or grouse, which garbage bird other called in field or fence along, one thousand graceful things you told in tongues, bashful from wing unwinged blackening feather bled, your lasting bones so with air or filled by spark, orison of sound tendon and claw