

[psalm]

grave or the grieving, the slipped knot of same under whose mitre or between the rook, coiled a heaving mass of infinite grace, slanted green we heave our teeth to the sun, our or everything friend, believe, there is no only sound for hope